"Come grow old with me. The best is yet to be."

- William Wordsworth.

Having a wedding in a historic place adds your beautiful story to another.

We welcome you here to Rydal Mount which has a wonderful past to reflect your wonderful future together.

About

Rydal Mount, in the heart of the English Lake District, lies between Ambleside and Grasmere and commands glorious views of Windermere, Rydal Water and the surrounding fells. This was William Wordsworth's best-loved family home for the greater part of his life, from 1813 to his death in 1850 at the age of 80.

The house, which was a focus for romantic literature, continues to be owned by the Wordsworth family and retains the feel of a lived-in family home.

Wordsworth was a keen landscape gardener, and the 5-acre garden remains very much as he designed it. It consists of fell-side terraces, rock pools and an ancient mound.

"How does the meadow-flower its bloom unfold? Because the lovely little flower is free down to its root, and in that freedom bold."

- William Wordsworth.
